

My History of Higher Education Activity

Review and Evaluate YOUR History of Higher Education

Directions:

1. Review the example below to get an idea how to start your history
2. Using a blank sheet of paper or something to write, begin writing your own history of higher education.
3. Here are some things to think about:
 - a. Can be family members, friends, or your support network
 - b. Include college majors and jobs
 - i. It is completely fine if you are first to go into college in your family! Include what your family did for jobs/other experiences

Questions to Reflect on:

1. What patterns did you find in your history of higher education?
2. How do you feel your family/friends/support networkers' experiences impact your own journey in picking a major?
 - a. If you've completed the common thoughts worksheet, what common thoughts did you mark that might be due to your history of higher education? Why?
