

Date-a-Major

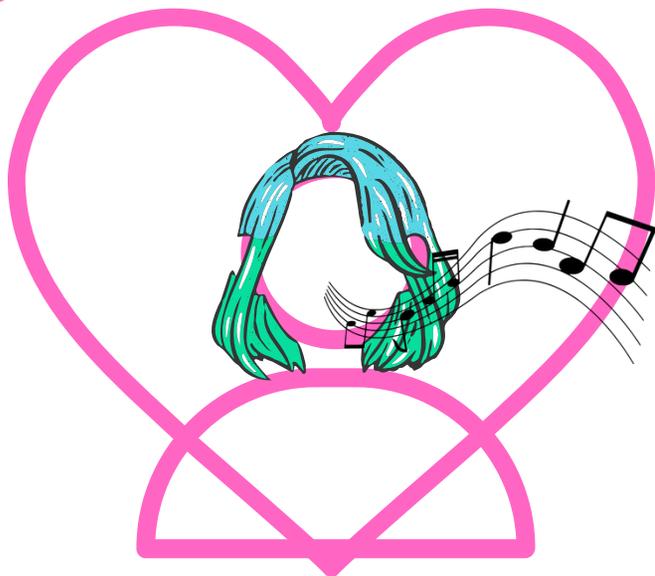

Trying on a major can be like dating. You're looking for key attributes that make a good match and keep you coming back for more, even through difficult classes and long study sessions. If you could build your dream date major, what would it look like? Refer back to previous activities in the class and ask yourself what attributes you're looking for in a major. Below are some attributes you can pull from, but feel free to add your own! Create a list at the bottom of this page of those attributes important to you.

Attributes

- Animals/Nature
- Helping people
- Learning about people
- Gaining new skills
- Leadership
- Hands-on learning
- Culture
- Creativity
- Problem Solving
- Science
- Math (level?)
- Language (level?)
- Numbers/data
- Communication
- Internships
- Study abroad
- Specific career outcome
- Scholarship opportunity
- Variety of classes
- Number of unit required
- Double major options
- Minor
- Competitiveness
- Research opportunities
- types of assessment (papers vs. essays)
- Recognition
- Diversity
- Connection to faculty
- Class size
- Community/involvement
- Flexibility
- Other:

My Dream Attributes

Now that you have developed a list of dream attributes build 3 unique major dating profiles from the bottom up! For each profile, write the bio (think of foundational items that your dream major cannot do without), interests (as items that make your dream major more interesting and enjoyable) and a tagline (attributes that aren't as essential, but make your date even better). To finish off your dream date major, give it a catchy name, but don't rely on real major titles. Reference the completed profile as an example:

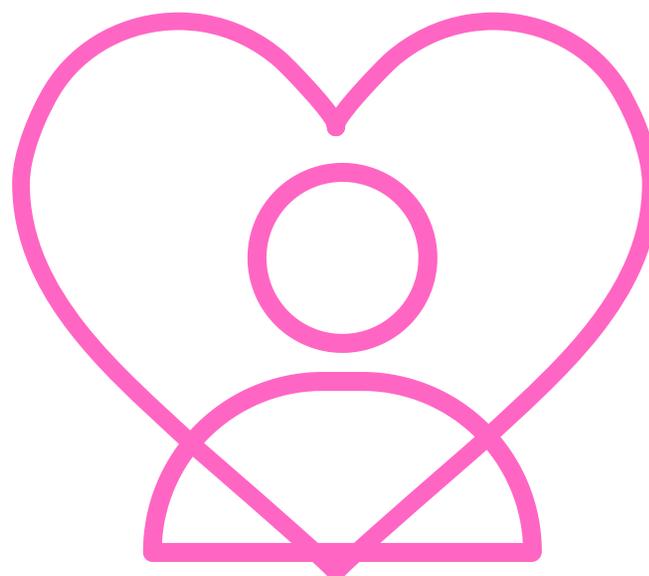

NAME: Song-Writing

TAGLINE: Study abroad makes me sing!

INTERESTS: Double-major opportunities, connection to faculty, and a low math level

BIO: I like hands-on-learning and a specific career outcome. Creativity is most important to me, specifically music. I enjoy small class sizes.

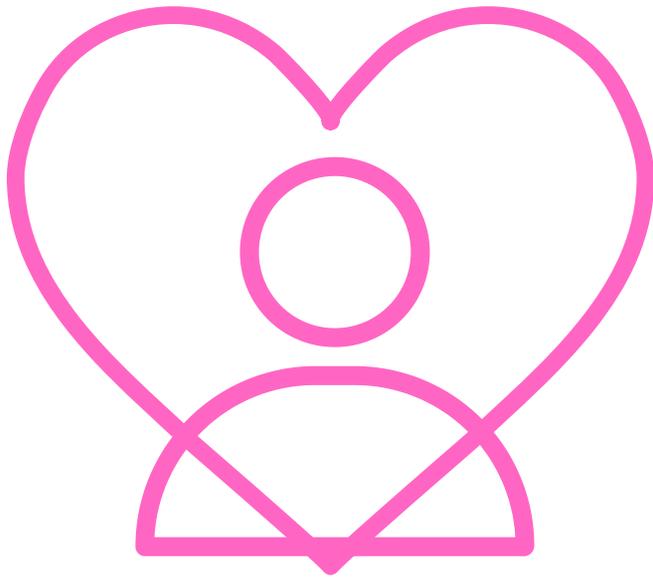

NAME: _____

TAGLINE: _____

INTERESTS: _____

BIO: _____

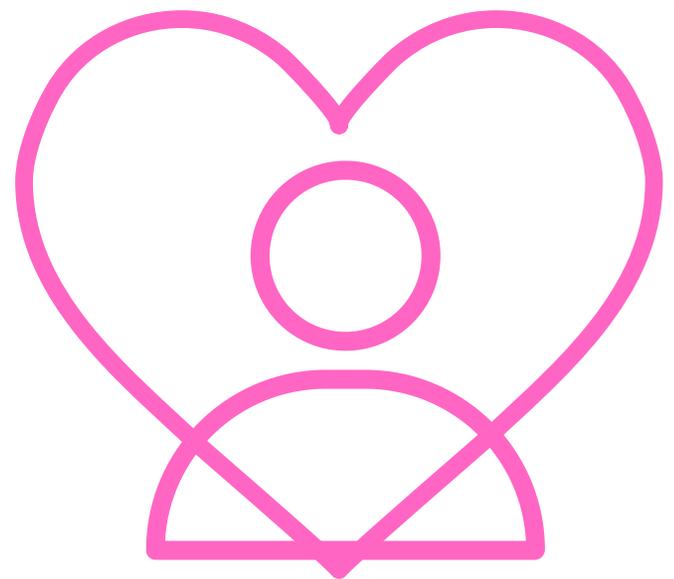

NAME: _____

TAGLINE: _____

INTERESTS: _____

BIO: _____

NAME: _____

TAGLINE: _____

INTERESTS: _____

BIO: _____

